Kim, I have just realized that I am delinquent in seeking an extension of time to respond to the supplemental information regarding MUR 6661 that you sent in a letter dated October 7, 2014. I apologize profusely and take full responsibility. I simply was overrun with other matters in the period before the election, and this slipped through the cracks. Since the letter you sent was received by the client on October 10, a response would have been due October 25 (or 27 if you don't count Saturdays and Sundays). I respectfully request an extension until November 17 to submit a response.

If there are any questions, please contact me. Thank you for any relief you can provide.

Best. -Scott
